VEHICLE ASSIGNMENT INTO TRUST

Date: October 18, 2025

Jurisdiction: Ecclesiastical Law / Natural Law / UCC 1-308 & UCC 1-103

Trustee: ✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements

Beneficiary: Jonathan Daniel Clements

Assigned Asset: 2010 Chrysler Sebring Convertible

VIN: 1C3LC45K18N674182

Color: Red

Use: Private / Non-Commercial / Ecclesiastical

Let it be known, published, and recorded that I, ✠ Jonathan Daniel Clements, in my capacity as Living Trustee and Sovereign Executor of the Ecclesiastical Private Trust of Humanity (ECC-TRUST–JDC–005), do hereby declare and assign the following private chattel property into irrevocable ecclesiastical trust:

2010 Chrysler Sebring Convertible, VIN 1C3LC45K18N674182

This asset is held in sacred stewardship for the benefit of the Trust and is hereby removed from all presumed public jurisdiction, commercial registration, and corporate claim.

Terms of Assignment:
1. This property shall be used strictly for private ecclesiastical purposes, and shall not be registered with any corporate state agency or used in commerce.
2. Any presumption of jurisdiction, title claim, registration, lien, or levy by any external agency is hereby formally rebutted and lawfully nullified under ecclesiastical sovereignty and divine jurisdiction.
3. The vehicle shall be marked clearly as:

"TRUST PROPERTY — NOT FOR HIRE
ECCLESIASTICAL PRIVATE TRUST
NON-COMMERCIAL"

4. All parties engaging this property are hereby put on notice that this is private trust property and is not subject to state or federal regulation or commercial code.

ECCLESIASTICAL SELF-INSURANCE LIABILITY BOND

TRUST PROTECTION BOND – ECC-TRUST–JDC–005

This bond is issued as lawful notice of self-insurance and liability coverage for the assigned trust vehicle:
2010 Chrysler Sebring | VIN: 1C3LC45K18N674182

This bond shall serve as lawful liability assurance under private ecclesiastical jurisdiction, fulfilling all obligations of moral and lawful coverage for the Living Trustee and Trust use of said property.

Bond Coverage:
- Third-party coverage in event of unintended damage or loss caused in natural use.
- Trust indemnification against unauthorized claims.
- Private ecclesiastical standing replaces all corporate insurance mandates.

Terms:
- This vehicle is not for hire, not in commerce, and not state-registered.
- All liability is held under private ecclesiastical capacity.
- Any agent, officer, or corporate body attempting to enforce commercial insurance mandates or seize trust property shall be:
  - Liable for $100,000 per act of trespass, and
  - Subject to international commercial lien enforcement.

Blessing Clause:
Should you choose to act in ignorance or force, we will not retaliate — we will pray for you, that one day you may come to honor truth, private equity, and natural law. May you learn to use your own insurance, and not force your systems upon others under threat.

NOTICE OF BOND REVOCATION & SURETY LIABILITY

ECCLESIASTICAL PRIVATE TRUST – ECC-TRUST–JDC–005

This Notice is active and binding upon any engagement in contract or commerce with the Living Trustee without expressed consent.

Activation Clause:
If any party — public or private — attempts to:
- Initiate enforcement of traffic code, statutes, or commercial ordinances;
- Request or compel contractual behavior;
- Detain, tow, ticket, or seize this vehicle;
- Demand insurance, registration, or licensing;

Then:
- Their corporate bond is revoked;
- Their surety is held accountable;
- A claim of $250,000 per incident is activated against them in private record;
- A commercial lien may be filed under international and ecclesiastical authority.

You have been lawfully noticed.

You are interacting with a Living Trustee under Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.
This is not commerce. This is not fiction. This is not a contract.
